Dear Admiral Turner,

It is my happy task to make the preparatory arrangements associated with your receiving Salve Regina's highest honor at the Twenty-Seventh Commencement Exercises on Sunday, May 22, 1977 at 2:00 p.m.

Action
We request a biography and six pictures to be used for off-campus and on-campus publications as well as the local and national press and broadcasting media. Since we face some early deadlines, is it possible to have them by April 8, 1977? In sending the pictures, please let us know the top five special media outlets that you would like to have receive our Commencement release about you. Of course, we shall automatically send the information to our usual national and local contacts for this occasion.

I will need to know your head size, height and weight for robing and cap purposes. Academic attire must be ordered by mid-April.

The College is pleased to invite your family and friends to this important occasion. Seats will be held in the reserved section for your personal guests. Please send a list of names and addresses so that special invitations for the reserved section may be forwarded by May 3rd.

Information about the President's Dinner on Saturday evening, May 21, will follow from Sister Lucille.

Thank you for your kind and prompt attention to the variety of requests contained in this letter. I look forward to meeting and greeting you in person at Commencement.

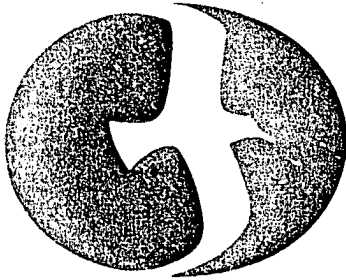

Sincerely yours,

Victoria White

Dear Admiral Turner:

We here at the College were very delighted to see that President Carter had nominated you for Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. We were also pleased that you received an overwhelming vote of confidence from the Senate during your confirmation.

I know that the new job that you are taking on is very challenging as well as being very difficult. However, because of the outstanding way in which you conducted the many changes at the Naval War College here in Newport, I am certain that you will do an equally outstanding job as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

We would, of course, be delighted if you would visit us here at the College whenever you are in Newport. I am sure that, as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, you will be coming to the Naval War College to offer your insights to our future leaders.

*Our "sneak preview" will be the Honorary Degree reception.
I am so glad you have accepted.*

Sincerely,

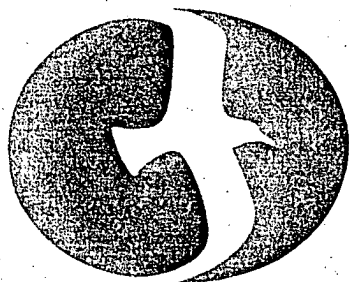

Sister Lucille
